

Women's Club
2019/2020 Meeting Schedule

October 10, 1:00 at the Lodge

Dairy farming and crop farming at its best! Join us as we tour nearby Hunter Haven Farms to learn about modern day dairy farming and cash crop farming. Hunter Haven Farms milk a herd of 850, have more than 1900 tillable acres, and employ upwards of 25 people. It's not your grandfather's farm operation!

November 14, 1:00 at the Lodge

Let's Talk Turkey! It's November and winter is around the corner. What's better for lunch on a cold day than steaming, hot turkey soup! While enjoying our soup, made by Donna Lessman, Betty Carrubba will share ideas on how to set a festive table and Donna Lessman will share ideas on how to use your leftover turkey. ($5 fee)

December 12, 12:00 at the Lodge

Mix, Mingle and Be Merry with your neighbors and friends! Join us for a Christmas luncheon to remember, as we celebrate the holidays! (More specifics will be available soon.)

January 9, 1:00 at the Lodge

"Getting to Know You!" Donna Aleksy will present a program on personality profiling and how it is used in the workplace.

February 13, at the Lodge

Jenny Lyons from the Cutting Edge Salon in Lanark will be giving a cosmetology presentation about all the services the salon has to offer, as well as a more in-depth talk on the benefits of reflexology.

March 12, 1:00 at the Lodge

Prairie Club members Jim and Pam Richards will speak about native prairie plants and share information about Lake Carroll's native prairies. Be prepared to see some stunning photos of Illinois prairies.

April 9, 1:00 at the Lodge

April Showers Bring May Flowers! Tips for flower gardening by Bruce Black, University of Illinois Extension Horticulture Educator. Look to our natural areas as well as cultivated gardens to find tiny treasures as well as bold, colorful blooms.

May 14, 1:00 at the Lodge

"Mystery Field Trip!"

June 11, location to be determined

Join us as we celebrate a successful year at our annual Spring Luncheon. We will install new officers and committee chairs will give their end of the year reports.
